Dave Ratzlaff is here from End for a visit with relatives in this community.

Messdames T. P. Nichols and R. G. McDougal were visiting in Ellinwood Monday.

Joe Bowman returned from Kansas City Wednesday where he has been attending an automobile school.

The brick work has been completed on the new garage, and the carpenters are now engaged in the finishing work. The building will be ready for occupancy about the middle of January.

Earl Williams was called to Marion Sunday morning by a message received from Mrs. Williams who has been there several weeks visiting her parents, stating that the baby was very sick with pneumonia. Mr. Williams returned home yesterday and reports the little one much better.

Mrs. Ed Deyne was called to the home of her parents at Me-Cracken Tuesday by the sudden death of her father. He had visited here on several occasions and had many friends in the city who will be sorry to learn of his sudden death.

A painter by the name of Mc-Dowell, a rather elderly gentleman, who has been in the employ of Ed Smith, had the misfortune to fall off of the scaffold where he was working in the building by the bank today. He was painting a ceiling and was working up close to the front, when in some manner he lost his footing and fell through the transom and into the basement, several feet below. Although he sustained only a sprained arm, he was unconscious for quite a while. It is cosidered miraculous that his injuries were no worse.

Xmas at the Catholic Church

Xmas services will be held at the Catholic church as follows:

At midnight, at the hospital; at 7 a. m., low mass at the church; and at 10 a. m., high mass at the church.

Chas. Faber is here from Oregon for a visit with relatives.

T. E. Gough last week lost a valuable horse with blind staggers.

Mrs. J. T. Newsom has been quite sick for the past week with the grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mansolf have been spending the week at the home of Louis Mansolf and family.

Ira Worden and John Gallon are on a visit to New Orleans and will go to Cuba before returning.

Mrs. Alvin Worden was quite ill Saturday and in consequence Alvin could not carry the mail.
It so happened that the substitute, P. W. Paxson, was absent, and Glen Miller filled the vacancy.

Chas. Monroe left yesterday for Garfield where he took up the duties of Santa Fe relief agent.

A deal was made in our city last Monday, whereby J. Fleming became proprietor of the livery and feed barn formerly owned by Roy Hayes. Mr. Fleming is an honest upright young business man, and will no doubt be a success in his new undertaking.
Mr. Hayes has not decided what he will do in the future, but he and Glen Miller left Monday for points in Oklahoma where they will be for a couple of weeks, probably looking for a location.
